Burlington Resident - Mike Hall - Wins National Coaching Award

Burlington, ON, March 1, 2018. The 12th annual TPA [Tennis Professionals Association] National Coaching Conference was held on March 1st, at Toronto's Aviva Centre, and as part of the event, several important figures in the Canadian tennis landscape were honoured for their service to the sport with TPA Excellence Awards.

The 2017 Coaching Excellence Award was given to Michael [Mike] Hall of Burlington. Mike Hall is a certified Coach 3 and has been with ACE at the Cedar Springs Club since 2003. He is currently Director of High Performance and Head Coach of ACE's International Team and has been instrumental in helping build ACE's reputation as the #1 tennis school in Canada for the last 17 years.

Mike has notably worked with players such as Alexandra Mikhailuk, Jessica Alsola, the recent U16 National Champion Rachel Krzyzak and previously with Kirsten [KK] Magi [Senior Account Manager in Corporate Partnerships for Tennis Canada] who was ranked nationally as high as 10 in juniors. Mike also previously worked with National Champions Alejandro Tabilo, Sofija Zecevic and Charlotte Petrick.
